

"Ag Libs" — Vi

"Ag-Libs" are a fun way to make your own silly story! Before reading the story, ask someone to give answers to the words in parentheses. Write their responses in the blanks. Then read the entire story using their answers!

In a beautiful land called South Dakota, there once lived _____ and _____. On a hot summer day, their parents took them to Grandma and Grandpa's farm. The children were going to stay _____ while their parents went to _____ for a vacation.

(1st name) (2nd name)
(length of time) (place to visit)

When their parents left, the children sat quietly in the _____. They were feeling a little _____. Grandpa said, "Come on, kids! Let's take a look around the farm."

(place in the house)
(emotion)

The children followed Grandpa to the barn. "Grandpa, do we have to _____?" asked _____.

(a chore) (1st name)

Grandpa laughed. Inside the barn the children saw stacks of hay, various pieces of equipment — and a _____!

(type of animal)

"Is this where you keep the cows, Grandpa?" asked _____.

(2nd name)

"No, but we can take a look at the cows," Grandpa said. "Let's take a ride on the _____. The children laughed, ran outside the barn, and climbed on.

(piece of farm equipment)

Grandpa drove down a gravel road and into a grassy area. "Here's one of the corn fields," he said. The corn plants were tall and green. Grandpa and the children climbed down and stood by the field.

"Yummy — can we eat some corn?" said _____.

(1st name)

"This is dent corn, not sweet corn," said Grandpa. "I plant it in the spring, help it grow all summer and harvest the corn in the fall. Then I take it to the grain elevator."

"Then what happens to it?" asked _____.

(2nd name)

